

Library Computer configuration – Current

7 public computers

Software loaded on these computers:

Microsoft OfficePro 2016

Windows 10

DeepFreeze

Web Browsers – Microsoft Edge, Google Chrome, Firefox

Software and Drivers for Brothers wireless laser printers

Avast Antivirus Software

Adobe Acrobat Reader

Public computers used as follows:

Children’s computers: Internet gaming (roblox), internet searches, U-tube viewing

Adult computers: Internet searches, email, job searches and applications, computer games, document preparation and printing

2 staff circulation computers used by staff for all library work including:

Microsoft OfficePro 2016 programs – Excel, Word, Outlook, PowerPoint the most used

Web-based Insignia Library System – our electronic library record system

1 computer designed for handicap access with a screen reader, ball mouse, lighted keyboard with larger letters and headphones.

1 computer attached to an older microfiche reader

1 computer attached to our MakerBot 3D printer

1 Office “server” where the library files are stored rather than on individual staff PCs

1 staff computer used as the control console for the public machines containing the same software as on the public machines plus the control consoles for DeepFreeze and Avast Antivirus